

RIFLE BADGES WON IN MATCH ARE GIVEN OUT

Names of Washington Men
Who Qualified at Glenburnie.

Qualification badges in connection with the recent rifle shooting contest at Glenburnie, Md., are being distributed under the direction of Col. M. A. Winter, acting for Maj. William C. Harline, U. S. M. C. The medals won on this occasion are being made, and will be ready for distribution in a few days.

According to the list sent up from the Navy Rifle Range at Glenburnie, under whose auspices the matches took place, the Washington Rifle Club members came off with flying colors, not only on the basis of high qualifications won, but also in connection with the large number of medals awarded them for their skill with the rifle.

The badges, or "buttons" thus given out are attractively designed, and will be sent to the following local shooters:

Expert Class—Robert M. Morris, Ralph C. Stokes, Eric M. Newcomb, H. M. Ryan, Walter R. Stokes, Ollie M. Schriver, Alphus Winter, G. B. Cornwell, R. G. Fletcher, J. A. Markie, Benjamin Harrison Corbett, R. H. McGarity and F. Chisholm, all of the Washington Rifle Club; C. C. McDonald, Department of Agriculture Rifle Association, Washington.

Sharpshooter Class—Robert M. Morris, Ralph C. Stokes, Eric M. Newcomb, Ollie M. Schriver, Alphus Winter, G. B. Cornwell, D. E. Wilson, R. B. Cornwell, J. A. Markie, J. H. Robertson, B. H. Corbett, R. H. McGarity, Charles F. Himmel, E. Coler, C. E. Perkins, Jr., E. Chisholm, H. E. Dow, E. E. Dow, Samuel H. West, and Walter R. Stokes, all of the Washington Rifle Club; H. G. Ruddiman, Alexander McC. Ashley, R. V. G. B. Cornwell, L. A. Steinke, C. C. McDonald, E. D. Strait, M. R. Cooper and G. A. Lawyer, all of the Department of Agriculture Rifle Association, Washington.

PATRIOTIC SERVICE AT TEMPLE BAPTIST

The evening services today at Temple Baptist Church, Tenth and N streets northwest, will be a patriotic nature. Senator Thomas Worthington of South Dakota, will deliver the address. A program of special music will be rendered by the church quartet, composed of Mrs. Grace Beaton Brown, organist; Mrs. Ollie D. Sweet, soprano; Miss Nan Field, contralto; Mr. Joseph Comer, tenor; and Mr. Arthur Guilford, bass. The public are invited to these services.

Ship Launching Record Is Promised in August

Savannah, Ga., July 6.—A record for launching ships will be set in August, according to announcements by the managers of the various local yards. The Foundation Company states it will launch four mine sweepers, valued at $200,000 each, for the French government during that month. It now has eighteen keels laid.

Civil Service to Examine For Health Inspectors

A civil service examination of applicants for appointment as sanitary and food inspectors in the service of the Health Department will be held July 19.

Chains Child, 5, to Bed While on Shopping Tour

San Diego, Cal.—A charge of extreme cruelty and inhuman treatment was made before the local police here, when James Golden, 5 years old, was found chained to a bed, alone, in his mother's home. She had chained the child so that she might do down town on a shopping expedition. The mother declared she could not take the boy with her as he was a bother. The child is suffering from want of food and water.

Carry Liquor in Pocket If in Auto—It's Safer

Americus, Ga., July 6.—If you are riding in an automobile and have a quart of whiskey in your pocket, the liquor is not contained in the car. So decided a jury in a recent case where an automobile was seized and confiscated on the charge of being the vehicle of transportation of liquor in Georgia. Thereupon the automobile was restored to its owner.
